All of our Manuscript fonts have the European variations of the Latin alphabet. See the DN European characters, DN_Europ.pdf.

Our DN font family has cursive fonts for English (DN Cursive …)
Spanish (SDN Cursive …)
German (GDN Cursive …)
French (FDN Cursive …)
English samples are on the DN Sample Sheet, DN_fonts.pdf.

Spanish: same as English, plus Áá Éé Íí Óó Úú Ññ

To apply an accent to letters A, E, I, O, U, a, e, i, o, or u, type the letter followed by ` (left of number 1).
Eenya: type N or n, followed by the ~ (shift, left of number 1).
The accents will look better after you run LinkLetter SDN.

French: English, plus à è ì ò ù Áá Éé í ó ú Áâ ê î ô â Çç

To apply accents to letters using FDN Cursive:
1. Accent grave: type letter followed by ` (left of number 1)
2. Accent acute: type letter followed by ~ (shift, left of number 1)
3. Accent circumflex: type letter followed by ^ (shift 6)
4. C-cedilla: type C or c, then \ (near the Enter/return key)
The accent will not look quite right until you run LinkLetter FDN.

German: same as English, plus Ää Öö Üü

To apply an umlaut to letters A, O, U, a, o, or u, using GDN Cursive, type the letter and type the accent key ` (left of number 1).
The umlaut will look better after you run LinkLetter GDN.
